Dear Peter

Our Office Relocation & Fit-Out

It is now just over twelve months since we moved into our new larger Camberwell premises at the start of 2006.

Integrity's promise is:

"uncompromising commitment to product quality and outstanding service".

In our experience Integrity delivered fully on their promise; with the approach always being enthusiastic and professional.

The company's culture is "can-do". We were very pleased with the on-time completion together with willingness to undertake additional work subsequent to the original fit-out.

Peter, again thanks for the great service.

Yours faithfully
